

GAME NOTES

Powell River Kings
at Wenatchee Wild

Saturday December 17, 2016

The Wenatchee Wild (27-5-2-0) wrap up a short two game homestand tonight. The Powell River Kings (21-15-1-0) are making their only regular season visit this year to Wenatchee.

HEAD TO HEAD: Powell River won both head to head matchups last season, blanking the Wild at Town Toyota Center 6-0 and squeezing out a 2-1 double OT win on the island four days later. Earlier this season, the Kings edged the Wild in overtime at the BCHL Showcase in September.

STANDINGS: The Wild are in first place in the Mainland Division, nine points ahead of Chilliwack with one game in hand. The Kings are currently in second place in the Island Division, eight points behind the Victoria Grizzlies.

WHO TO WATCH FOR: Brendan Harris continues to lead both the Wild and the BCHL with 61 points (14g, 47a), while Charlie Combs is second in overall points (53 pts.) and leads the BCHL with 36 goals. Alex Bates leads Wenatchee defense with 27 points (2g, 25a). Powell River is led by Cam Donaldson (23g, 21a) and Tristan Mullin (20g, 23a) while Callum Volpe (3g, 19a) heads the defense.

HOME COOKIN': Wenatchee continues their undefeated streak at Town Toyota Center this year with a record of 15-0-0, and have now outscored their opponents by a combined total of 91-23. The Kings are 8-11-0 on the road this season. (Records not including neutral site showcase games.) The Wild are 32-7-2-2 at home since joining the BCHL.

LAST NIGHT: The Wild sunk the Nanaimo Clippers 6-2 in a dominant performance at home, while the Kings were handed a 6-1 loss in West Kelowna. The Kings also lost on Thursday in Surrey, 4-3.

MOVING ON: The Wild Christmas break begins tomorrow and the season resumes Dec. 28 at Chilliwack. Wenatchee and Chilliwack reconvene at Town Toyota Center for their final two regular season matchups on Dec. 30 and 31. The Kings also go on break beginning tomorrow and return to face Nanaimo at home on Dec. 30.

MEDIA: Tonight's game and all Wild games are aired on Sunny FM (93.9 FM), and available on a pay-per-view basis with HockeyTV.com. Tonight's Pregame Show airs at 6:45 pm.
